

The Town of Star Valley Ranch is accepting resumes for a Building Official. The position is full-time with benefits. This position reviews building applications, reviews building plans, approves and issues building permits, does building inspections on active construction, and enforces code in relation to building ordinance and IRC/IBC code. Individuals will need certification as a building inspector and plan reviewer or ability to obtain certification within a year of hire.

Resumes can be sent to mayor@starvalleyranchwy.org – open until filled. The Town of Star Valley Ranch is an equal opportunity employer.